

Ian Levy

BSc (Hons) (ANU) MSc (Dist) (London) & Diploma of Imperial College (Royal School of Mines)
Non-Executive Chairman

Mr Levy has had 29 years experience in both mining geology and mineral exploration including 12 years with Western Mining Corporation Limited (WMC) and 11 years experience in mining business development positions.

Mr Levy commenced his mining career with WMC at the Kambalda Nickel Operation in Western Australia. He worked on the Kalgoorlie Golden Mile and Central Norseman Gold Mines prior to being appointed senior commercial geologist at Western Mining's head office in Melbourne in 1980.

In 1984, Mr Levy was appointed WMC's Chief Geologist of the Tavua Basin Joint Venture with Emperor Gold Mines in Fiji. During this time, exploration teams under his management discovered the million-ounce Prince William ore system. From 1987 until present, Mr Levy has worked in development roles for mining-exploration companies including Pancontinental Mining and Gympie Gold Limited. In 2005 he joined Allegiance Mining Ltd as its Chief Executive Officer.

Mr Levy has been Federal President of the Australian Institute of Geoscientists and was a member of the Joint Ore Reserve Committee (JORC) for 10 years including four years as Vice Chairman.

In June 2007 D'Aguilar announced that Mr Levy had been appointed CEO of AusNiCo Pty Ltd, the specialist nickel explorer of which D'Aguilar owns 90% and plans to seek an ASX listing in the first quarter of 2008.
