

National Mining Awards Gala Dinner 2008

16 September 2008

Ballroom, The Hilton Hotel,
488 George St, Sydney

Excellence in Mining and Exploration 2008 (EME 08) showcases some of the best opportunities in mining investment from Australia and overseas. EME 08 brings leaders in mining and exploration together with institutional, professional and private investors in one of Australia's most well-respected and highly-focused resource investment forums.

The program culminates with a spectacular Gala Dinner which is widely recognised as a prestigious industry event for the mining sector in Australia. The National Mining Awards 2008 held in association with the Sydney Mining Club will be presented at the Gala Dinner.

Former test cricketer and sports commentator Kerry O'Keefe will be the MC for the evening and will co-present the following awards during the evening.

- The Discovery of the Year, sponsored by Kingsgate Consolidated, with the finalists being Integra Mining, Newexco and Jabiru Metals.
- The Producer of the Year, sponsored by Independence Group, with the finalists being Fortescue Metals, BHP Billiton and Panoramic Resources.
- The Deal of the Year, sponsored by Artemis Executive Search, with finalists Gindalbie Metals, Kerry Harmanis with Jubilee Mines, and Rob Neale with New Hope Coal.
- The Growth Story of the Year, sponsored by The Sydney Mining Club, with finalists Gloucester Coal, Felix Resources and Aquila Resources.
- The Frontier Explorer of the Year sponsored by Mining Journal with finalists Citadel Resources with Ines Scotland, Central Asia Resources and Globe Metals & Mining.
- The Applied Technology of the Year sponsored by Australia's Mining Monthly with finalists Austpac Resources, Swick Mining, Barmenco and Baleen Filters.
- Manager of the Year sponsored by Resource Stocks with finalists Worley Parsons for Fortescue Metals Group and Rob Yeates for Newcastle Coal Infrastructure Group.

The event will be held at the Hilton Ballroom on the evening of Tuesday 16 September and will incorporate entertainment with the industry awards.
