

Metgasco Limited (ASX : MEL) is an Australian based energy company developing gas reserves and power for the eastern Australian energy market. The Company is actively exploring and developing coal seam gas and conventional oil and gas resources in the Clarence Moreton Basin in northern New South Wales. Since the company listed in 2004 it has identified some 250 Pj (2P) and 1,389Pj (3P) of gas reserves.