

“RBM owns 100% of the Redbank Copper Project in the NT. The Company is implementing a strategy to get into production by early 2009 through the staged development of the project, commencing with mining and treatment of oxides, presently the subject of a Definitive Feasibility Study.”